APPRENTICE TRAILS GUIDE COURSE

This is a 4 week program designed to provide students with the necessary exposure to Dangerous Game and Weapon Handling for the FGASA Apprentice Trails Guide qualification.

NOTE:

- Can only be done after FGASA Nature Site Guide NQF2
- You need to have completed PFTC Weapons before you do the Weapons Course with Limpopo Field Guiding Academy. That can be done while on the course, but is not included in the price.
- The ARH component is an advanced process. If you do not have prior weapons experience, you can use it as a basic training course.

Included:

4 Week TG Apprentice course

FGASA TG Books and Exam

FGASA Moderation Fee

NOT INCLUDED:

FGASA membership fees and Subs

Week 1 and 2:

Walking Apprentice to our Trails Guides, twice per day, gaining DG hours and encounters on foot.

You work through the FGASA TG workbooks for theory preparation

Writing an internal TG test after Week 1 and the actual FGASA TG exam after week 2 (special sitting)

Week 3:

This is the actual FGASA ARH training and assessment week – see info separately.

ARH course including ammunition is included in the course price quoted in this document

No refunds are given for unused ammunition

Week 4:

You are prepared and assessed for the FGASA Apprentice TG assessment

Occurs during standard DG training week with other students.

Included in course:

Practical exposure and encounters

Training and assessment for Apprentice TG and ARH

Ammo on ARH course
